

Lawyer and member of the Paris Bar since February 2018, Ariane holds a Master degree in private and in property law from the University Paris I - Pantheon-Sorbonne.

During her training, she has done several internships, including in the labour department of Brunswick law firm, in Lefebvre Avocats Associés's litigation department and in the litigation service of the Bank of Tahiti.

Ariane intervenes in real estate, commercial and labour law. She is involved in these fields in both counseling and litigation.

She works in French and English.

Ariane joined LIGNER & ROCHELET in January 2018.

boyer@ligner-rochelet.com

