

The LIGNER & ROCHELET Firm is a legal practice made up of experienced professionals. The Firm offers transversal skills as regards both legal aspects and knowledge of its clients' professions.

Our Firms' ambition is to offer full legal services which correspond to companies and businessmen's needs.

In the framework of each of our interventions, our approach consists in taking account of the stakes with which we are entrusted in their overall environment by integrating the legal, financial and operational dimensions.

In addition to this approach, we believe it is important to maintain a favoured, reactive and long-term relationship with our clients and corporate directors, based on mutual confidence.
